

Legacy Licensing

Legacy licensing consists of conventional and web-activated licenses which have been used in most CSI products up until 2020 when cloud licensing was introduced. Licensing of older products will continue to use the legacy systems. The following pages and topics contain additional information related to legacy licensing. We encourage you to review this information before contacting licensing support.