

Soil-spring effect during static pushover

How does static-pushover analysis in CSiBridge include the effects of soil springs?

Answer: When soil springs are created outside of the bridge modeler, they are not automatically included in pushover analysis. To include the effects of soil springs, create a group which contains all soil springs, then enter this group under Foundation Group on the Substructure Seismic Design Request Parameters form.